The Safest Investments

Are those that do not fluctuate during disturbed conditions of the money or stock market. First class of trust notes (first mortgages), well secured on real estate in the District of Columbia, constitute "well-secured" investments, and they do not depend upon the financial responsibility of individuals or corporations for their stability. We can supply such investments in amounts from $500 upward for bondholders. "Concerning Loans and Investments."

BUREAU OFFICIALS
IN ARMY SLATED
FOR PROMOTIONS

Acting and assistant chiefs of bureaus in the War Department and officers who have made a record of achievement thus far in the war are included in a list of nominations of brigadier generals now before the Senate for confirmation.

Lieut. Col. Samuel T. Ansell is the acting chief of war promotion. Colonel Ansell is acting judge advocate general of the army while Brig. Gen. E. H. Crowder is serving as provost marshal general for the draft. He is recognized as one of the army's chief legal authorities.

Assistant Chiefs.
Col. Isaac W. Little, Chauncey Baker, E. E. Winslow, Edwin E. Babbitt, and Henry P. Birmingham are the assistant chiefs of staff departments promoted to the ranks of brigadier. Colonel Little, as construction quartermaster, had charge of building the thirty-two army cantonments and camps; Colonel Baker is the transportation expert of the quartermaster corps, who has had the task of motorizing the army transportation system; Colonel Winslow is assistant to General Black, chief of engineers, in charge of the engineer military section; Colonel Babbitt is assistant to General Crozier, chief of ordnance, and Colonel Birmingham is assistant to General Gorgas, the surgeon general of the army.

Other Promotions.
Other colonels promoted to brigadiers are Col. James T. Kerr and Eugene F. Ladd, retired, the latter assistant to Adjutant General McCain; Col. David L. Brainard, quartermaster corps; Frederick V. Abbott, corps of engineers; Charles B. Wheeler, ordnance department; Charles Richard, William H. Arthur, and Alfred E. Bradley, medical corps; Benjamin Alvord, adjutant general's department; Edgar Russell, signal corps, and Lieut. Col. Harry L. Rogers, James G. Harbord, Clarence C. Williams, and Walter A. Bethed, the last mentioned a former assistant to the judge advocate general, who is now intelligence officer at General Pershing's headquarters.

LIEUTENANT WON'T LOSE
JOB BY MISSTATEMENT

A misstatement by Second Lieutenant Arthur Brigham, Jr., made while he was seeking promotion, is not sufficient to warrant his dismissal from the service, President Wilson has held.

The War Department announced today that the President had remitted sentence of dismissal imposed on Lieutenant Brigham by general court-martial.

He was charged in his application for examination for appointment as provisional second lieutenant, United States army, with swearing that he was single, when in fact he was married.
